Designer's Muse and Philosophy

As a designer, I follow 3 main principles; decolonization and inclusivity and sustainability. Bringing my peruvian culture, my own experiences being plus size, and making the most of what I have. This collection was designed based off my peruvian heritage and my high school alternative, goth young self. I never felt that there were clothes that were the black alternative goth style with hispanic flare. Therefore, I decided to make the clothes my young self would have loved and myself now would love. I did this by mixing a darker style with peruvian shillouttes and patterns in a dark modern aesthetic.

Collection's Statement

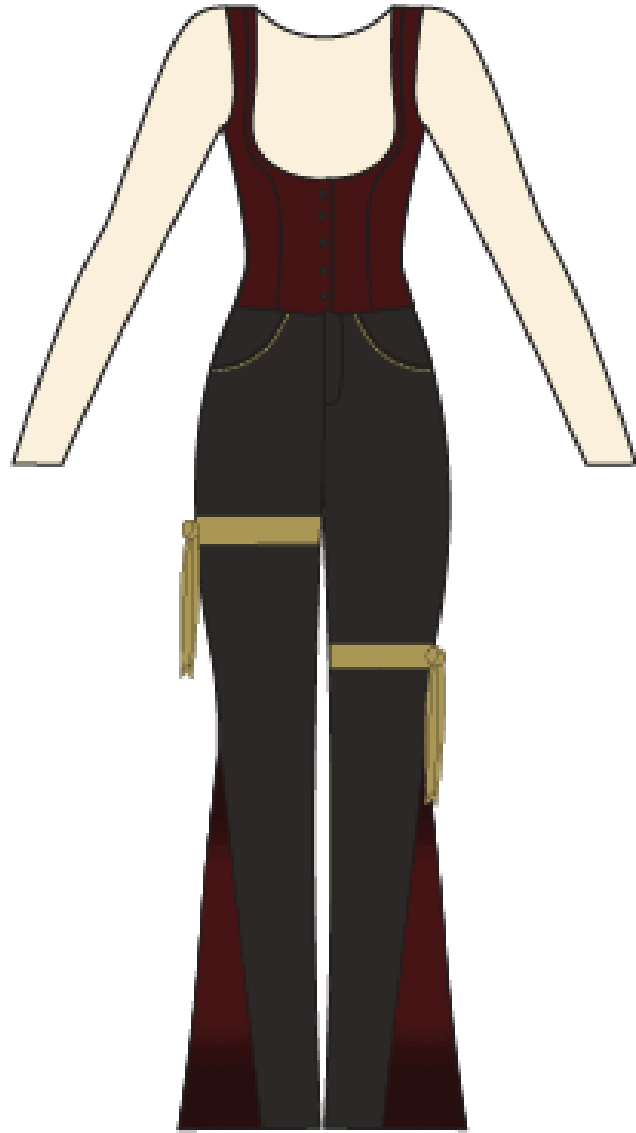

A collection you've never seen—yet always needed, going further; felt. Alt+ P reclaims cultural identity through a bold Gothic-Andean lens, crafted for women 20-40 who curate beyond graphic tees. For gallery wanderers and concert souls seeking cross culturally coded statement pieces: ancestral craftsmanship meets dark romanticism, heritage re-imagined as wearable art. Sleek silhouettes, brooding palettes, symbolic motifs with ancestral weight. This is alternative culture with lineage, dangerous beauty with roots. Discover pieces that speak in two languages—and transform your wardrobe entirely.
